

under the name of the "Plympton Public Library Society," hereinafter referred to as "The Society."

Objects.

2 The purpose of the society shall be: to take over, establish, equip, maintain and operate a public library at Plympton, Digby Co., for the use of the people of Plympton and vicinity.

May hold real and personal property.

3 The society is hereby empowered to receive, acquire, lease and hold real and personal property and to manage such real and personal property as shall be necessary for the purpose of the society, and from time to time to sell, convey, mortgage or lease the same, and to accept, hold and manage all gifts, legacies and bequests at any time given or made to the said society provided, that no real property shall be sold, mortgaged, conveyed or otherwise disposed of except under the authority of a resolution passed by a majority of two thirds of the members present at a meeting of the members of the society called for the purpose under the by-laws.

May sue and be sued.

4 The society may sue and be sued and may prosecute and defend actions, and shall have power to make such contracts as may be necessary for the purpose of the society.

Directors.

5 The society shall be governed and managed by a board of directors five in number, to be elected at the annual meeting of the society from among the members, under the provisions of the by-laws to be made as herein provided.

Officers.

6 The directors shall select from their number a president, a vice-president, a secretary, and a treasurer.

7 Until the said directors are regularly appointed at a meeting of the members, the first five persons named in Section 1 of this Act shall be the provisional directors of the society.

8 The members of the society may from time to time make such by-laws as are deemed necessary or desirable for the management of its affairs and for carrying out its object; provided that such by-laws are adopted by a vote of at least two-thirds of the members of the society present at the meeting.

9 The annual meeting of the society shall be held at such time as may be prescribed by the by-laws of the society.

10 No member of the society shall be liable for any debts, liabilities or obligations of the society unless such member has become surety for or has otherwise assumed such debt, liability or obligation.

CHAPTER 102.

An Act to Incorporate The Theatre Arts Guild.

(Passed the 2nd day of May, A. D. 1934)

Be it enacted by the Governor and Assembly as follows:

1 David R. Turnbull, Col. Sidney C. Oland, Robert M. Boyd, Charles J. Burchell, K. C., Andrew R. Cobb, Thomas P. Douglas, W. Vernon Gordon, Ronald J. Macadam, Dr. Henry F. Munroe, G. Fred Pearson, K. C., E. Caleb Phinney, K. C., Dr. Frederick H. Sexton, Col. W. Ernest Thompson, and Arthur B. Wiswell, and all who shall hereafter become members thereof are hereby created a body corporate under the name of "The Theatre Arts Guild" hereinafter referred to as the "Corporation".

Powers.

2 The corporation shall have all corporate powers and all corporate capacity necessary to enable it to do all or any of the following acts or things, that is to say:

- (a) To take over all or any part of the property, effects, assets and liabilities of the present unincorporated association known as the Theatre Arts Guild.
- (b) To promote the study, practice and knowledge of the dramatic and musical arts in the city of Halifax and the neighbourhood.
- (c) To carry on the business of theatre proprietors and managers and in particular to produce or provide for the production, representation and performance of dramas, tragedies, operettas, pantomimes, stage plays and other, musical and dramatic performances and entertainments.
- (d) To provide for the delivery and holding of lectures, meetings, classes and conferences calculated directly or indirectly to increase public interest in the study of the dramatic and musical arts.
- (e) To enter into agreement with authors or other persons for the dramatic or other rights of dramas, tragedies, comedies, operettas, pantomimes, stage plays and other musical and dramatic performances.

(f) To borrow, raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the corporation may deem fit.

(g) To acquire by purchase, take on lease or in exchange or otherwise acquire any real property necessary for the purposes of the corporation and to sell, mortgage, charge, lease or otherwise dispose of such real property and any rights or privileges incidental thereto when, and as the corporation deems fit.

(h) To acquire by purchase, take in exchange or otherwise acquire any personal property necessary for the purposes of the corporation and to sell, mortgage, charge or otherwise dispose of such personal property and any rights or privileges incidental thereto, when, and as the corporation sees fit.

(i) To construct, maintain and alter any buildings necessary for the purposes of the corporation.

(j) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in effecting the purposes of the corporation.

(k) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the corporation or any part thereof for such consideration as the corporation may deem fit.

(l) To do all other such acts and things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the foregoing objects, acts or things.

3 No member of the corporation or of the board of managers or of any committee shall be liable for the debts or liabilities of the corporation, or for any part thereof, unless he shall have rendered himself liable therefor by becoming surety therefor.

No personal liability.

By-laws, Rules and Regulations.

4 (1) The board of managers may from time to time make, alter, amend or repeal such by-laws, rules and regulations as they may deem necessary and proper for the management of the affairs of the corporation generally; and every such by-law and every alteration, amendment or repeal thereof, unless, in the meantime confirmed at a special meeting of the corporation duly called for that purpose, shall have force only until the next annual meeting of the corporation and in default of confirmation thereafter shall, at and from that time only cease to have force.

(2) Without thereby limiting the generality of the provisions contained in Subsection (1) the board of managers may make by-laws, rules or regulations in respect of:

- (a) The appointment, powers and duties of the board of managers, and the qualification for membership on the board of managers.
- (b) The appointment, powers and duties of the committees and officers of the corporation, and the use and management of the property of the corporation.
- (c) The election of members, the entrance fee, annual subscription and other matters relating to the payment of all fees and dues.
- (d) The meetings of the committees and the meetings of the corporation, the management and expenditure of all moneys belonging to the corporation.

(e) All matters relating to the discipline of the members of the corporation and the expulsion of any member from the corporation.

(f) The publication of all by-laws, regulations and rules of the corporation.

5 The persons named in the first Section of this Act are hereby declared to be the board of managers of the corporation, with all the powers of the corporation, including power to make by-laws, rules and regulations until the first meeting of the corporation.

6 A board of managers of the corporation shall be elected at each annual meeting of the corporation in accordance with the by-laws and regulations, and this board of managers shall appoint such officers and such committees as the by-laws provide.

7 Any real and personal property now owned by Theatre Arts Guild is hereby vested in the corporation hereby created.

CHAPTER 103.

An Act to Incorporate "Saint George's Society of Halifax."

(Passed the 10th day of April, A. D. 1934)

Be it enacted by the Governor and Assembly as follows:

1 Arthur E. Jubien, Reginald V. Harris, Douglas E. Major, James H. Young, Robert W. Cooley, Robert Horton, James R. Mellish, W. Percy Bur-