Auditions for Dracula - The Bloody Truth!

Sunday, Dec 8, 2019, 6:00 pm - 9:00 pm

Tuesday, Dec. 10, 2019, 6:00 pm - 9:00 pm

Dracula - The Bloody Truth by Le Navet Bete and John Nicholson

In the original novel Dracula, Professor Abraham Van Helsing chases Dracula from Transylvania to England and back trying to rid the world of this terrible vampire. Our play brings Professor Van Helsing to The Pond Playhouse to show the audience how novelist Bram Stoker did not get the story quite right, but he will straighten things out with the help of his group of actors. As Van Helsing recreates the Dracula story, everything that can go wrong does go wrong: actors, props, set, costumes, backstage crew, etc. They incompetently try to recreate the story as Van Helsing vainly tries his best to keep things going. The result is outrageous comedy!

Rehearsals begin early January. To get a sense of the production watch the trailer for Le Navet Bete's show on YouTube.

Performance Dates: March 19 - April 4, 2020

Characters: Actors play multiple roles, gender is not important. About 4-5 actors.

This is a fast paced production with tight, sometimes physical comedy, set changes by the cast, a little singing and improvisation when things invariably go wrong. Actors will need to attend ALL rehearsals and enjoy collaborating in a creative workshop rehearsal environment.

Please download the PDF of the audition monologue on the TAG website prior to your audition. If you have questions, contact the Director Nick Jupp at (902) 477-8697 or ncjupp@gmail.com

Call for Director Submissions for the 2020-2021 Season!

Planning for the 2020-2021 Season is already underway.

If you have a script that you would like to direct, please submit it to: Esther VanGorder, Artistic Director.

Submissions must include a script, notes on how you plan to address anything unusual (e.g. complicated sets, special effects) as well as the time slot you prefer.

Musical submissions will be entertained, however, directors must include with their submissions a guaranteed, volunteer musical director who is willing to not only work through the rehearsal period, but also act as accompanist for all performances.

There are four time slots available:

- * Sept 2020
- * Nov-Dec 2020
- * Feb 2021
- * June 2021

Deadline for submissions is January 15, 2020.

Seeking Script and Book Donations

We have put together a library in the Gratwick Rehearsal Hall and are seeking script books and books on theatre arts. Please sign the cover and leave them at the theatre for Lorne Abramson. Thanks!

On Stage Next ... Dracula: The Bloody Truth

March 19 - April 4, 2020

Dracula - The Bloody Truth by Le Navet Bete and John Nicholson

Director: Nick Jupp

Our March 2020 comedic play was developed and written by one of England's foremost comedy troupes based in Exeter, Le Navet Bete, in partnership with playwright John Nicholson. Based on the original story by the Irish novelist Bram Stoker, Le Navet Bete's version sees Professor Van Helsing attempt to explain how Bram Stoker got it all wrong and how he will educate the audience on the real facts about Dracula. Although Van Helsing tries his hardest, the inept actors he has employed make a complete comedic mockery of his efforts (much to his frustration).

The original novel Dracula generated an enormous public interest in vampires and the undead and hundreds of films, plays, video games, comic books, and documentaries have resulted. However, LeNavet Bete's version is unique and will have you rolling in the aisles.

Tickets go on sale February 21, 2020!
